

Tracking Your Award

Your award year begins on the first day of the fiscal year (September 1) and ends on the last day of the fiscal year (August 31). Your award year is the same as the fiscal year. The fiscal year is the period of time that the University uses to report to the federal government. The fiscal year is the same as the academic year. The fiscal year is the same as the academic year. The fiscal year is the same as the academic year.

Keep track of your award year by using the award year calendar.

Taxes

All employees are required to pay federal income tax. The University will withhold federal income tax from your pay. The University will also withhold state income tax from your pay. The University will also withhold Social Security tax from your pay. The University will also withhold Medicare tax from your pay. The University will also withhold health insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold dental insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold vision insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold life insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold disability insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold unemployment insurance from your pay. The University will also withhold other taxes from your pay. The University will also withhold other taxes from your pay.

When Your Position Ends

When your position ends, you will receive a final paycheck. The final paycheck will be issued on the last day of your employment. The final paycheck will include any accrued vacation pay. The final paycheck will also include any other benefits you are entitled to. The final paycheck will be issued on the last day of your employment. The final paycheck will include any accrued vacation pay. The final paycheck will also include any other benefits you are entitled to.

- Your award year ends on August 31.
- Your award year ends on August 31.
- Your award year ends on August 31.
- Your award year ends on August 31.

For more information, contact the Human Resources Department.

For more information, contact the Human Resources Department.

